

Samuel Keran

Technical Director/Master Carpenter
samuelkeran@gmail.com
(651)-356-2666

Experience

Love and Information, University of Minnesota Duluth, 2021

Technical Director

Used AutoCAD to draft plates, installed green screen flats, in charge of strike, set up twelve actor stations to follow COVID protocol

Little Shop of Horrors, University of Minnesota Duluth, 2020

Assistant Technical Director

Used AutoCAD to draft set plates, in charge of build in groups of four students Build cut short due to COVID

Love's Labor's Lost, University of Minnesota Duluth, 2019

Scenic Carpenter

Was put in charge of groups of two or three students, assisted load in and strike

Time's Up, University of Minnesota Duluth, 2018/19

Master Carpenter

In charge of build days, created cut lists, assisted in load in, in charge of note corrections, no strike due to travel

Significant Other, University of Minnesota Duluth, 2018

Master Carpenter

In charge of builds of wood sections of set, in charge of note corrections, assisted strike

Related Experience

2009-2020, Residential Carpenter, Keran Home Services

2018-2019, Scenic Carpenter, UMD Scene Shop

2013-2017, Scenic Carpenter, Simley High School Theatre

Education

BFA Technical Design & Production - University of Minnesota Duluth, Grad. 2021

Skills

Intermediate CAD Drafting
Basic Model Building

Beginning MIG Welding
Beginning Photoshop

Proficient in Hand Drafting

References

Scott Boyle
Technical Director, UMD Theatre
(218)726-8320
smboyle@d.umn.edu

Sean Dumm
ATD/Scene Shop Foreman UMD
(218) 726-8774
smdumm@d.umn.edu

Jim Davis
Freelance Technician
c. (715) 307-4240